

2025-2026 WVU Tech representation in WVU Faculty Senate and Committees

(Updated October 15, 2025)

According to the Guide for Faculty Senators, the primary responsibilities for senators are as follows:

- Actively participate in all Faculty Senate meetings.
- Serve on at least two Faculty Senate committees.
- Seek input from colleagues regarding ideas, policies, or areas of concern.
- Disseminate information on policy issues passed by the Senate to your constituents.

Faculty Senate elections are conducted each spring. Terms are typically for three years, with each year beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30.

Faculty Senators for WVU Tech
2023 – 2026	Kenan Hatipoglu
2023 – 2026	Douglas Terry
2024 – 2027	Mark Jones
2025 – 2028	Rachel Bragg

The Faculty Senate has two constitutional committees and 12 standing committees. A complete list of committees and members can be found at <https://facultysenate.wvu.edu/committees>. For information on how to volunteer to serve, please contact the Faculty Senate Office. Committee members must be members of the University Assembly as defined in Article I of the WVU Faculty Constitution.

2025 – 2026 Faculty Senate Committee Representatives for WVU Tech
Academic Technology Committee	none
Committee of Retired Faculty	none
Committee on Collaboration	Kenan Hatipoglu
Committee on Committees, Membership and Constituencies	none
Curriculum Committee	Gifty Osei-Prempeh
Executive Committee	Douglas Terry
Faculty Welfare Committee	Rachel Bragg
General Education Foundations Committee	Douglas Terry
Inclusion and Diversity Committee	Cynthia Clark
Library Committee	Douglas Terry
Research Committee	none
Service Committee	none
Shared Governance Committee	none
Student Recruitment and Retention Committee	none
Student Rights and Responsibilities Committee	none
Sustainability Committee	none
Teaching and Assessment Committee	Yogendra Panta